As you may be aware, your school is part of an evaluation of a teen dating violence initiative funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. As part of this evaluation, we are asking you to participate in an online survey about youth relationships and your school.

This brief survey is expected to take approximately 15-20 minutes. For your participation, you will receive a $25 e-gift card to Amazon.com about two weeks after completing this survey; the e-gift card will be sent to you via email.

Please answer the questions honestly and in a private setting. You can do the survey either at school or from home, whatever is most convenient for you. Read all the answers before making your choice. If none of the answers exactly applies to you, please mark the answer that best fits.

Consent and Confidentiality

• Your participation in this survey is completely voluntary and will have no effect on your position as a teacher in your school or your school's incentive or funding that it receives for being in the study.

• If there are any questions you prefer not to answer, you can move to the next question.

• Information you provide, along with that from others, will be kept completely confidential, and your responses will not be shared with other school staff, including administrators.

• Results will be reported only in aggregate with all teachers' responses together, and will be included in an evaluation report about the implementation of the Start Strong Initiative.

If you have any questions about the study:
Please call Dr. Shari Miller at RTI at (800) 334-8571 ext. 26211 if you have any questions about this survey. You may also call RTI's Office of Research Protection if you have questions about your rights in the study. The toll-free number is (866) 214-2043.

By agreeing to participate in this survey, you indicate that you understand the statements described above.
