

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

{Year In Review}

For more than 30 years the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation has brought experience, commitment and a rigorous, balanced approach to the problems that affect the health of those we serve.

As the nation's largest philanthropy devoted exclusively to improving the health and health care of all Americans, we help people lead healthier lives and get the care they need.

Working with diverse partners, we address many of the most difficult health and health care issues facing the United States, attacking problems at their deepest roots. We advance our mission by supporting training, education and research and through groundbreaking demonstrations that promote effective services, particularly for the most vulnerable among us. This Year in Review provides a comprehensive analysis of our work in 2007.
